Chicago, Nov. 12.—Joseph Ladue, who struck it rich on the Klondike, was robbed of $700 worth of nuggets at the depot of the Lake Shore railroad yesterday. When the letter was shown to Mrs. Taylor she bitterly denied its statements.

Havana, Nov. 12.—Capt. Gen. Shackelford's Plurality With All the Returns In.—He Had 123 Majority Over All.

The Official Vote in the Counties of the First District.—The Democrats Had About 7,000 Plurality.

The first complete table of the vote cast in the election for clerk of the court of appeals is published by the Courier-Journal. Nearly all the figures are official, only a small percentage being those obtained from the unofficial count.

While Mr. Sam J. Shackelford won by the handsome plurality of 17,326, this is from 8,000 to 15,000 less than the plurality that has been claimed for him since the election. His majority, which is the number of votes he received over the combined vote of all his opponents, is 123.

THE ALLARD CASE
Is Enlivened by a Bloody Fight in the Court House Hall This Afternoon.

Tom Allard, Son of the Plaintiff, and John C. Willis, of Metropolis, the Defendant.

An exciting fight took place this forenoon about 10 o'clock in the hall at the county court house between Tom Allard, son of Mrs. Josephine Spaulding, plaintiff in the suit against Oliver Allard to break the will of the late J. L. Allard, and John C. Willis, of Metropolis, who was Oliver Allard's body guard a few months ago, appointed by the Massac court accompanying him where ever he went.

Willis came up this morning from Metropolis to testify in the case. Young Allard has been occupying a seat in the court room during the trial and heard Willis testify. It is alleged that Willis made some statement reflecting on Mrs. Spaulding, Tom Allard's mother. Young Allard left the court room, and, full of resentment, was waiting for Willis when he emerged into the hall.

"You'll have to prove what you said in there," Allard declared. "I'm a friend to you, Tom," Willis is quoted as saying in reply. "You're a liar, you're no such thing," retorted Allard, and Willis pushed him away.

Allard then struck him in the left eye, and the two fell to fighting, bursting through the door into the circuit clerk's office, where they were finally separated.

Willis, it is said, claims that Allard struck him when he was not looking, but he is not corroborated by eye witnesses in this statement. His face was badly disfigured in the fracas and he bled freely.

Allard went at once to the city hall and was released on bond to appear and answer to a bench of the peace charge tomorrow.

This afternoon the two came near fighting again in the court house hall.

The totals for all the candidates are: Shackelford, 186,153; Bailey, 168,826; Hindman, 9,152; Parker, 5,874; Wallace, 1,470. The total vote cast in the State was 372,181, which is about 78,000 less than was cast last year for President. This is not so great a falling off as was expected. The vote for Hindman and Parker was not reported from all the counties and may be changed by the report of the Secretary of State.

The following is the vote of the First District.

CHURCH ENSATION.

A Man Fired Out for An Alleged Ugly Offense.

Opinions Differ as to His Innocence or Guilt.

Blood River Baptist church is noted for sensations, says a correspondent to the Murray Ledger.

This time it's a charge against E. Lassiter for trying to force Katie Stewart, the little 13-year-old daughter of J. T. Stewart, who is pastor of said church. The girl states that the attempt was made last May, her father knowing of it, and told other members of it the first of June, so the story goes the three months between then and now. When church conference was held this was kept a secret and the church reported in peace. A party was telling it to some of the members and asked all to keep it a secret from Knox and intended to turn him out of the church and not let him know it. He selected his own committee to investigate it, and Lassiter was told of the charge, it enraged him and he denounced it as a base, slanderous falsehood and that it was the infamous slime of some slanderer done through prejudice. But the committee, which consisted of men, proceeded to investigate and charged and to take evidence in writing and verbal. Three of the ten members in the city, it is probable. The show is said to be a good one for its size.

A Partial List of Those to Come Before the Democratic Caucus Next Week.

Many Men for a Few Offices to be Filled Early in December—Almost One Hundred of Them.

"The more the merrier," is an old adage, and if it counts for anything, the race for elective municipal officers under the present administration will be a merry one.

As stated yesterday in the Sun, the commission-elect are preparing to hold a caucus early next week to decide on a "platform." This caucus is looked forward to with a great deal of interest by the anxious office seekers, and will no doubt be a source of much gratification to the councilmen recently elected, who have experienced little of the enjoyment of life since the election.

The number of candidates is very large, but many of them will likely not receive a vote. So far as is known not but three republicans will ask for endorsement. These are Fire Chief Voight, Market Master Smith, and City Engineer Pratt. A petition, it is understood, is being circulated by friends of Mr. Pratt asking for his re-election.

Some of the other candidates are as follows: a new councilman having furnished them, together with the information that there were some more, but he had forgotten them.

LOCKSMITHS: Messrs. John Hughes, J. M. Champion, John Ellis, W. F. Byrd, Jesse Young, W. T. Owen, Will Reed, and Louis Frier.

STREET INSPECTOR: Alex. Story, Wm. Wheeler, Bert Johnston, F. M. Baker, Jim Flournoy, Charlie Hart, Lem Fields, Jim R. Conby and C. A. Shultz.

CITY ENGINEER: John W. Thompson, C. A. Peil, Henry Enters, Robt. Cole, James Grimes, Fred Williams, J. A. Clark, E. W. Pratt, Wm. Peal and T. W. Baird.

CHIEF OF FIRE DEPARTMENT: Jas. Woods, Joe Washington and Chas. Volant.

ASSAULT CHIEF: W. E. Auguston, Walter Ingram and Joe Waggoner.

CITY TREASURER: F. G. Endolph, John McKnight, W. Y. Noble, C. C. Ross, John Donovan, John Bonin, E. C. Johnson, H. B. Jarvis, John Leuter, Charlie Bounin, Clint Wallace, W. T. Goodman, Du-priest, J. M. Hart and E. B. Richardson.

MANAGER OF HOSPITAL: Mrs. Sarah Birchett, Mrs. James Birchett, Mr. Willis Morgan and Jim McKinney.

TAX COLLECTOR (election in June): Ed Wear, George Robertson, Joe Yeiser, Fendol Burnett, J. Henry Smith, A. S. Terrell.

CITY ENGINEER: Mr. James Wilcox.

ENGINEER STREET ROLLER: Joe Berry, Sr.

The section of Oak Grove is hereafter, in pursuance of an ordinance passed by the present council, to be elected by the commission.

So far as is known, there are no announced candidates for wharfmaster. Messrs. S. A. Fowler and H. A. Pelter are possible candidates.

As will be seen from the above, two members of the school board, Messrs. Rose and Weil, are candidates for city offices.

Yale's Big Production at Morton's Monday Night.

One of the most important attractions offered here this season is Chas. H. Yale's "The Twelve Temptations," which is to claim attention at Morton's opera house next Monday night.

This is reputed to be a great spectacle, putting out a large sum of money to put on the stage in its present state of novelty and equipment. It is entirely new, colorful in every respect, and an absolute miracle of beautiful scenic environment, while the hosts of splendid and dazzling costumes afford a continuous feast of harmonious color, blending and uniqueness of design. The piece, besides being a fairy spectacle with stirring adventures at the North Pole, is literally crowded with fun of the most boisterous kind, and pantomime tricks which will raise laughter loud and long.

FRIDAY, NOV. 19, 1897.

Last year Bryan carried Kansas by 12,000. This year the Republicans have carried the state. This is one of Bryan's reasons for a free silver victory in 1900.

Thus Henry George party was the only one that endorsed free silver in Greater New York, and it only polled 19,877 votes out of over half a million. This is one of Bryan's consolation drops.

As a result of the elections of 1897, the sound money majority in the United States senate will be increased. Yet Mr. Bryan tells us that the elections of this year prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that silver will win in 1900.

BUTHERFORD B. HAYES was elected governor of Ohio three times, his largest plurality being 7,518. Governor Bushnell, the Republican candidate, received 29,000 plurality this year. W. J. Bryan extracts lots of comfort out of this fact also.

GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS, the apostle of Bryanism in Massachusetts, has been running the Democratic party in that state three years. In 1895 he polled 121,599 votes; in 1896, 103,662 votes, and in 1897, 79,166 votes. This is another evidence of the popularity of Bryanism and free silver.

Some few weeks ago we used to hear complaint about the street roller; the perennial kicker said it was a failure and some sensible folks, were foolish enough to believe his statement. If those people will go down on Third street where the roller is being built and see with how great facility the street is dug up, they will be able to judge for themselves whether the roller makes a hard street.

In regard to the issues of 1900 we are willing to admit that it will be some phase of the money question. But it does not follow that we believe there is any cause for apprehension or distrust of the future. Free coinage of silver is not a dead issue, but the campaign of 1896 was by no means without permanent results. After a campaign of education such as this country had never seen, the people decided against the theories of the Chicago platform. Commercial events this year have proved that the whole course of reasoning pursued by the advocates of free coinage was fallacious and not supported by facts. The progress of the civilized world towards the gold standard has made many decisive steps since the election of 1896. Events have demonstrated that the single gold standard is to be the universal money standard of the world, for one by one the bimetallic or silver standard nations are adopting the gold standard. The fact however will have nothing to do with the abandonment of the agitation in this country. The politicians who are leading the agitation in this country for a cheaper money have hit upon the money question simply because they thought it was the most popular issue. They stand ready to abandon it at any time that another issue appears which contains the promise of victory. Hence it is that we believe the financial issue is with us for several years perhaps, but mere as a rallying point for those dissatisfied elements that fail to reap their full proportion of the prosperity of the world.

That recent decision in regard to Building and Loan Associations is not as liberal with the associations as it should be, but is a more liberal construction of the law than the former ones. It makes the borrower responsible for losses to the extent of his stock, as well as the lender. When the Association party came merely to register the orders of Ros-

We have an immense stock of other makes from 60c to $4.45.

Your Cloak

Perhaps you don't care to buy an expensive cloak. More people don't than do. It is none of our business whether you pay $5.00 or $25.00. We don't mean to meddle with your choice, we merely suggest that no matter how little you pay, you may as well have the correct thing, stylish, well-made and worth the money; and you can get it here surer than anywhere else. Cloaks from last year at half price.

Conkling the people rose up in their might and overthrew the machine. Cleveland defeated Judge Folger for Governor by 196,000 majority. Conkling, of course, made a mistake that Platt will never make, but it only made the rebuke the severer. "Lowism" may not succeed in retiring Platt from the leadership of the Republican party in New York, but the attempt is going to be made. Senator Platt is going to have the great battle of his life. War has already been declared, and one side or the other will go down in defeat before "Lowism" ceases to be a factor in New York politics.

No Cause for Alarm.
Republicans, after the late elections, were scared without cause, and grumbled before they were hurt. The results show a United States Senator from Maryland, a Republican majority of nearly 30,000 in Ohio, with the assurance of the election of Senator Hanna, a Republican revolution for Kansas and South Dakota, a Republican Legislature for New Jersey and New York, and old-time Republican majorities in Iowa and Massachusetts. Against the e we have a Tammany triumph in New York City and a Buckingham steal in Louisville. But neither in this life nor the other can it be all heaven without some hell.

The Citizens Union movement, or "Lowism," as it is called, is not a transient affair. It has a mission to perform, and that mission will be accomplished before it disintegrates. When the Citizens Union party elected Strong mayor of New York, its victory was a protest against the ring rule and corruption of Tammany Hall and the bossism of Richard Croker. It retained its organization and perfected it for the sole purpose of defeating Tammany Hall in the great struggle for the control of Greater New York. It is a well known fact that the Republican party of New York is under the absolute control of Senator Platt. The leaders of the Citizens Union movement felt that a surrender of their liberty and organization to the Republican party would be promoting against—machine politics and one man power. They said that they were Republicans, but this being a local fight they preferred to maintain their organization; that they would not betray the 137,000 voters who petitioned Seth Law to make the race and promised to stand by him. It was pointed out to the Republicans that they could endorse Low and thus assure the defeat of Tammany Hall. This Senator Platt refused to do. The result was that Tammany won, but that Seth Law polled nearly 40,000 more votes than the Republican nominee.

This much is history. What of the future. The Republican members of the Citizens Union party now promise to carry the war against Platt into the Republican organization. They declare that one man rule shall not be tolerated in the Republican party of New York state. When the Republican party came merely to register the orders of Ros-
